

XING Jobs

The simple way to reach the right people.

How XING works for you.

Reach candidates right where they're considering their professional future: on XING. The great advantage is that, by involving the XING network, your job ads are also recommended in the network news feed of members who aren't actively looking for a job, but are open to offers. Automatic keyword suggestions ensure even more visibility for your job ads. The XING JobManager, the performance monitor for your job ads, gives you complete transparency so you can make any necessary adjustments to your campaign. And job ads you post in XING Jobs are also available to non-members.

Convenient delivery: We offer various options for you to integrate your job ads into XING Jobs: for individual postings, we recommend using the XING JobManager. When posting larger numbers of ads, we offer the option to supply ads by way of a feed or API from your HR system.

Your benefits at a glance

Wide reach and visibility

Post your job ads on one of the leading German-speaking job boards and reach XING members and non-members who are active or passive jobseekers.

Tailored to applicants

By adding company details, videos, salary ranges, kununu employer ratings and culture information, you can provide a detailed and transparent company presentation. XING Instant Application allows candidates to apply for a job with just two clicks.

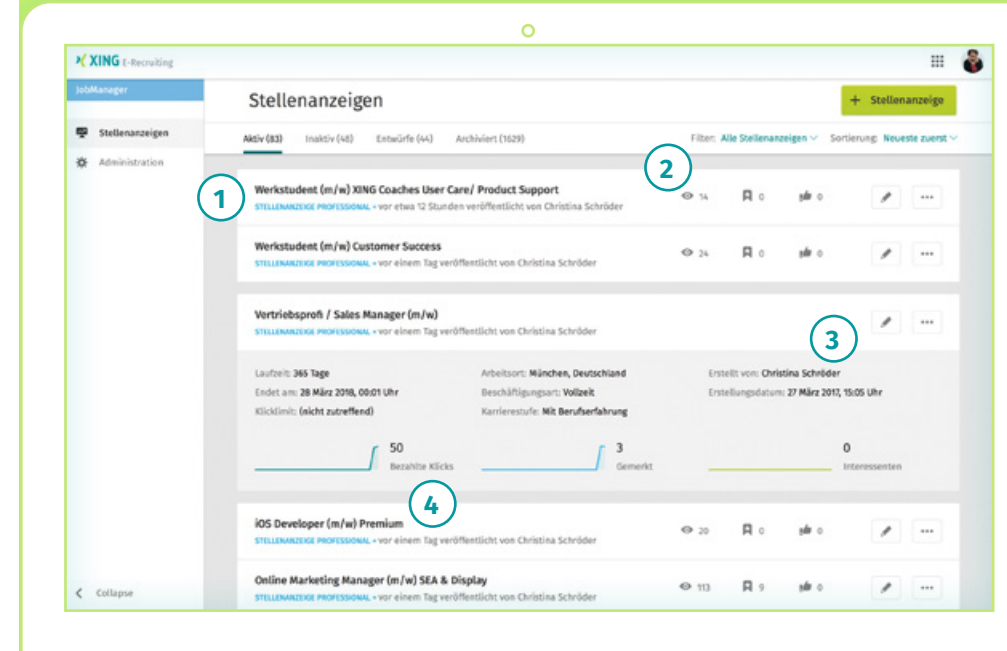

Simple and effective

Using the XING JobManager as a hub, you can create, post and optimise your ads in a flash. You'll also automatically receive candidate suggestions.

XING is a Google Careers launch partner, enabling you to generate more attention for your job ads as jobseekers will also find job ads posted on XING when using Google. This puts technology at your fingertips you can use to boost your hiring activities.

Visibility depends on the setting.

The world of work is currently undergoing its greatest transformation since the Industrial Revolution. This is particularly noticeable in human resources. Online job boards were the first step towards digitalisation around 20 years ago. Whether you're an applicant or a recruiter, nobody can avoid online job ads any more as job boards have become the most widely used recruitment channel, making them the cornerstone of every recruitment process.

At the same time, the setting in which job ads are posted is crucial. There are now over 200 online platforms, but hardly any of them offer both good reach and the benefits of social media. XING Jobs, on the other hand, combines the power of the largest online business network in German-speaking countries with an online job board. This enables you to tap into the potential of both active and passive jobseekers. This leads to a major increase in the overall quality of job applicants.

Post your job ad on one of the leading German-speaking job boards.

On XING, you reach active jobseekers as well as people who are open to offers.

- Wide reach and visibility – for XING members as well as for non-members.
- Tailored to applicants – with details, videos and employer ratings.
- Automatic candidate suggestions – find the right talent immediately.
